The DDF supports the mission of the Anglican Diocese of Armidale.

The DDF encourages members of the Anglican Diocese of Armidale to invest in the Fund. The DDF provides loans to parishes for projects within the Diocese, to clergy and other diocesan employees.

The DDF gives an annual financial contribution to the Diocese from any surplus it makes. The DDF is managed by a Board and reports to Diocesan Council and Synod.

You can invest with the DDF if you are: over 18, primarily and usually attend services of public worship for a period of no less than three months in a parochial district of the Diocese and are not a member of any other Christian denomination.
