Who we are

The Diocesan Development Fund (DDF) was established by the Anglican Diocese of Armidale in 1992. In September 2014, the Synod passed an Ordinance with a view to re-invigorating the DDF and providing for it to be managed by a Board which reports to Diocesan Council and, in turn, to the Synod.

The Corporate Trustees of the Diocese of Armidale (ABN 64 984 070 512) acts as trustee for the DDF.

The Diocesan Development Fund Ordinance specifies the arrangements under which the DDF is to operate, including details of the guarantee which is provided to the DDF by the Anglican Diocese of Armidale.

Our mission

The primary objective of the DDF is to support the mission of the Diocese by encouraging investors to lodge funds with the DDF and for the DDF then to use those funds to provide loans for projects within the Diocese and to clergy and other Diocesan employees. The DDF will also make grants to the Diocese out of the income it earns.

Who can invest

People associated with, and entities involved in, the Anglican Diocese of Armidale may invest. The DDF provides fee-free investments and pays competitive interest rates. Additionally, the DDF will exercise its discretion to donate a proportion of the income it generates on each investment to the investor's nominated parish, Diocesan entity or project.

The DDF receives administrative support from the Anglican Investment and Development Fund (ABN 71 007 807 415) (AIDF) in the Diocese of Canberra and Goulburn in providing the account for the Anglican Diocese of Armidale.
